

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The newspaper/broadcast cross-ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Dear FCC and Chairman Powell,

If you cannot see the danger in allowing cross-ownership in local media markets then what the heck are you doing in your job. You are suppose to be looking out for the public interest in your job at the FCC - not just the interest of large media companies.

Do not allow cross-ownership.

The FCC should be versed in this subject so please tell me arguments for both sides of this issue.

Thanks..... Stephen Henderson
